Synopsis

Get Book 1 in the series, A Mystic Murder for just 99c: <https://www..com/dp/B01AKXHWUW> Grace Angelo, witch and retired detective, is looking forward to a night of glitz and glamour. Her friend Dario, a local bookstore owner, has invited her to a prestigious book award event, but the celebrations are cut short when one of the winners is found dead. Hemlock Cove PD's detective, Zachary Jackson, is quickly on the case, and it soon becomes apparent they have a murder on their hands. Grace agrees to consult on the case and recruits Dario to help. The murder, however, is only one of Grace's concerns. Her special cat, Charity, is ill, cutting Grace's connection with the spirit of her mother. And to make matters worse, Dario senses a malevolent entity lurking in the shadows. Grace will need every ounce of her abilities if she's to solve these mysteries and bring justice to Hemlock Cove. Great characters, wonderful magic, and a teasing mystery—it's the perfect evening read and I can't get enough! â" Mary Busquets, Mystery Book Reviewer

It was a wonderful book to read and the plot was easy to follow, the characters were well developed.

Charity's spirit is asleep and that is a concern for Grace. A murder is committed and she is asked to help along with her friend Dario. There is an evil spirit that is lurking around but they find the murderer and cure charity, somewhat, and somewhere in all of this Dario and Grace discover they are falling in love.

I read both of the series by this author but this series is my favorite! This series gets better and better with each new book. A very good cozy mystery and will keep you guessing until the end. I love all of the characters especially Dario and Grace. I received this book free for an honest review and I can say I would highly recommend this book.

This was a very good book. I especially enjoyed the extra time that was spent on Grace's family and her budding relationship with Dario. All of these books have been very enjoyable and are best read in sequence. I'm really looking forward to the next book on the series.

The plot was incredulous. Never guessed who was the murderer. Dario's character more fleshed out. Charity was a great distraction. So glad that Dario and Grace are finally coming to terms with their feelings. Just loved it.....

What a perplexing puzzle! A Paranormal Puzzle is a very entertaining little book. Grace Angelo was a former detective on the Hemlock Cove Police Force and currently works part time for the police as a consultant. When Dario, her friend and bookstore owner asks Grace to accompany him to a book awards ceremony at which he will present one of the awards, she happily accepts. The award for the best new science fiction novel is won by a thoroughly unpleasant author. Shortly after leaving the ceremony, Grace and Dario discover a body. It is determined that the victim was murdered and there are numerous suspects. Grace is asked by Hemlock Cove detective Zach Jackson to help him solve the case. In this fourth book of the Witches of Hemlock Cove series we see a little more of Hope, Grace's eldest sister who has up till now spent the majority of her time in the tower of the Guesthouse. The romantic relationship between Grace and Dario is heating up also. The plot flows smoothly along and kept my interest throughout. The characters are well developed and as the series progresses you feel as if you know them. Ms Chase peppers the story with subtle clues but there is a twist at the end that will surprise you. Ms Chase tells her story without raunchy sex, profanities, or overt violence. I read cozies to relax, be entertained and to have a great mystery to solve. This book fits the bill. All in all, a very pleasant cozy.

I sat down to read this book while the laundry machine did it's thing and didn't stop reading until I had completed this delightful book. There is something so warm and familiar about the characters in Ms. Chase's novels, that leave me with such a feeling of warmth. If only I could walk the Sandy shores of the fictional town where the stories are set!

I've enjoyed the progression of this series so far and this time there are a few lovely twists. Cozy mystery lovers and/or those who enjoy what I call "witchcraft lite" should enjoy this book. I was given a copy to review but as I've grown so fond of this author and this series, I'd have purchased it the instant it was released. The story moves at a good pace without being rushed or without dragging, the characters are delightful (particularly a certain cat and dog) and the blossoming romance is good fun, as well. Without giving anything away, I do hope the author fills us in on a certain malady and the cause in the next outing to Hemlock Cove. I'll try to be patient.

Thoroughly enjoy this series. Relatable characters (yes, middle age is here) and nice story line. This is exactly what I need after a very busy work week and full Saturday of volunteering. Laying on the couch with something cool to drink and a really good story.
