Bone Crack: A Medical Suspense Thriller (The Gina Mazzio Series Book 6)

Synopsis

THIS KILLER CARVES HIS VICTIMS! RN Gina Mazzio and her long-time love, Harry Lucke, are deep into marriage plans when a particularly nasty murder intervenes—the bookkeeper in their friend Lolly's office has been raped and carved up. The worst part? The carving occurred before the murder. Lolly suspects her cardiologist boss, Dr. Mort Tallent, is involved. And since Gina helped her friend get the job of a lifetime, she jumps right into the fire. What she uncovers? Mort is one unsavory cardiologist. His ex-wife was murdered when she dumped him a year ago, and there's some shady shenanigans of a business nature—the kind you might kill to keep secret. Worst of all, there's that pal of his, the kind of person you never want to meet in a dark alley, or anywhere else. Digging after-hours at Tallent's office, Gina and Lolly never realize they're under surveillance. Afterwards: Lolly is horribly and brutally attacked, in much the same way the bookkeeper was. There's only one possible conclusion: she knew too much. Gina is the next target. Once again, in Bone Crack, the Lambs deliver a pulse-pounding tale of medical suspense packed with action, terror, and, of course, the requisite Mazzio mayhem. These authors' patented not-for-the-squeamish signature applies as usual—so if you're skittish, beware! As always with Gina, this is an action-packed but shocking, take-no-prisoners story. Definitely not for the faint-hearted, but fans of the more hard-boiled medical thrillers (and also of Patricia Cornwell) will eat it up! As will lovers of strong women sleuths, hospital mysteries, and all medical fiction, especially fans of Tess Gerritsen, Carolyn McCray, Eileen Dreyer, Lisa Genova, and Robin Cook. Praise for the Lambs: "In Gina Mazzio and Harry Lucke, the Lambs have created a tenacious and engaging duo who are worth rooting for." Sheldon Siegel, New York Times best-selling author "A chilling, gripping thriller by a talented writing couple." Marcia Muller, MWA Grand Master, on SIN & BONE

Gina Mazzio, our gutsy nurse from the Bronx, has once again found herself in the midst of a spree of murders at San Francisco's Ridgewood Hospital. Our bad boy is cardiologist Morton Tallent, who seems to have ignored taking the Hippocratic Oath by using a hit man to take out people that have proved to be an inconvenience for him, which also includes Mazzio. His hit man, Vlad Folo, is a jewel of a person who not only kills his victims, but tortures and rapes them as well. Having read every book in the Gina Mazzio series, I have found that the Lambs have proved to be worthy authors of a first class medical thriller series with each successive book getting better as the series progresses, but I feel that Bone Crack has somewhat missed the mark as it doesn't quite live up to the standards that I have seen from the other books in the series. My biggest problem with Bone Crack is the portrayal of the evil doers, Tallent and Folo. Both characters are despicable as one would expect for serial killers, but the Lambs seem to want to create a certain amount of empathy for these characters by depicting them as victims and their victimization is what molded them into the disgusting creatures that they have become. Folo was victimized when, as a child, he witnessed the brutal murder of his parents by members of the Russian mafia. The members of the mafia gang were also ordered to eliminate Folo, but he managed to escape only with the knowledge that one day he would be found and murdered. Folo's response to the torture, rape, and murder of his mother was not to seek vengeance on the perpetrators, but instead mimic their actions by attacking innocent victims, which mind you, doesn't make me feel a whole lot of empathy for him.
