Customer Reviews

This is a good story if you can overlook the lack of proofreading. It is also too short. The characters needed to be more developed and the events expanded. That being said, the story was good and held my interest. I did see the twist in the ending coming.

The writing (I can't bring myself to even call it a story) is too short; the plot, characters and theme are non-existent. It's as though the writer after watching Netflix The Sixth Sense, jotted down notes to remind himself of a story he didn't yet have time to develop and then accidentally "hit send." It's shamDespite its minuscule length there are numerous spelling and grammatical errors to boot. It wouldn't have taken 20 minutes to edit. The writing itself is desperate, overdone, gratuitously elaborate, the author is trying too hard to impress the reader, spending too much time on superfluous blather with no attention to substance. It's a rip-off and insulting, asking $2 for this drivel. I have no issue with short stories and the master wordsmiths with the talent to tell them. This however is not one of them, it seems the author fancies himself, the likes of E.A.P unfortunately this writing has no "tell tale heart."

Such a good story with a little bit of mystery and intrigue. Good short story to read in a hurry.

This is a very short read that contains a mysterious past that needs undoing and a new ending written. Enjoy.

This short story was quick to read. Ghosts abound trying to get revenge for their murders by a group of strange men trying to raise a powerful demon.
