Literature And The Child

Synopsis

LITERATURE AND THE CHILD, 8th Edition, covers the two major topical areas of children's literature: the genres of children's literature (picturebooks, contemporary realistic fiction, etc.) and the use of children's literature in the classroom. The book offers succinct yet beautifully written and illustrated discussions that reflect the tone and feel of children's books. Featuring discussions of the latest works of children's literature, the book includes coverage of the growing importance of young adult literature as well as emphasis on upper-level children's literature and adolescent literature. The authors pay careful attention to diversity in children's literature and equip readers with practical, research-based teaching ideas linked to the Common Core English Language Arts Standards for grades kindergarten through eight.

Customer Reviews

Great book! It really gives you a detail in children's literature, the different genres with updated books. This book is a definitely keeper for any teacher or soon to be teacher that wants to learn more about literature.

This product came on time and in the condition (Brand new) that I expected it to. I had to purchase this book for a class (Early Literacy) and I was kind of disappointed in the book, It was very dry and mostly listed books for each genre and did not give many ideas for ways to enhance early literacy for young children.

Great text for anyone new to K-8 education. This will be a resource I access over, and over. My only disappointment is not being able to access the additional online material available to those who purchase the textbook.

Great book i used it for a class but it still had some great book references and insight that was broken down neatly by chapter. Great for pre-service and service teachers (K-12).

the sources where used for the teaching of collage students in communications and for future development skills can lead towards research in stories ,papers and books

Very dense. Needed it for a class. Has a lot of good information but needs time to process.
